Summer Internship Position

Education Assistant

Who Should Apply?
Motivated college students who are interested in working with a fast-growing nonprofit seeking to promote sustainability through student empowerment. If you love working with children, want to try your hand at education programing, enjoy being outdoors, willing to meet new people, enjoy networking and building relationships, and want to make a difference to local communities and regional school students, then you should consider applying.

Location
The Althouse Arboretum  1794 Gilbertsville Road  Pottstown, PA  19464

Time
(May through August) The schedule is very flexible depending on which programs and camps you wish to participate in. It will require you to help on weekends and/or evenings. There are a limited number of day camps and programs. Some planning work required at home.

Description
GreenAllies is a 501c3 non-profit organization with a mission “to empower and support students to initiate and lead environmental sustainability efforts”. The foundation has two initiatives: Green Allies Network and The Althouse Arboretum. The Arboretum is a unique environmental education center and the Foundation’s base of operations in Upper Pottsgrove Township. As part of the development of the Althouse Arboretum, the foundation is establishing a series of public programs to bring all members of our community to the center. Programs range from children outdoor education opportunities to large-scale community themed events which may include: Community Recycling Days, Art Programs, Children and Adult Nature Walks, Themed events, farmer’s market, birthday parties, and other creative programs.
