

The GreenAllies mission is to empower and support students as they become environmental sustainability leaders. We envision a world where students lead the way to a more livable future by providing student leadership opportunities through service programs that promote a healthier, more sustainable community.

We Are:

- Empowering students
- Driving environmental innovation
- Creating visionary leaders

GreenAllies continues to create the next generation of environmental leaders by creating community programming led by students.

We also maintain a national network of motivated and committed college students. Community members throughout the tri-county region as well as nationwide continually volunteer and support student projects year-round.
